2. Members discussed at length the implementation of the curriculum at the UG – BA/BCom/BSc (Honours & General) and PG – M Com levels by the faculties and departments during the academic year 2021-22. The departmental heads reported that departmental academic calendars containing information about course matters, number of lectures, resource persons etc were distributed among the students at the beginning of the year. Online & Offline (From 16th August, 2021) classes were held regularly and the syllabus was covered completely. Technical devices like Google meet, Google class-room, LMS etc were utilised for the online purpose. For the dissemination of information the social media platform of whatsapp was also used. The internal evaluations and university examinations was too conducted online. Students submitted their answers through email or whatsapp to the respective departments. In this way the curriculum delivery was successfully completed.
