

Program Specific Outcomes:

B.A. English Honours –

- Under the program of BA English Honours students develop an adequate understanding of the range, significance and scope of English literature; at the same time they study the growth and evolution of the English language.
- They develop a comprehensive idea of the genesis and journey of English poetry from the Old English period to the Modern.
- Undergoing the program of B.A English Honours, students are empowered with the capacity of appreciating literary texts and examine the theme and structure of different genres of poetry, drama and fiction. They possess a critical understanding of the social and cultural contexts through the study of the background of literary works.
- Along with British English literature they get adequate exposure to the literary texts of Indian English, American English and even African English authors. Their sphere of knowledge is extended up to the classics of European literature including the Greek and Latin texts though in translation.
- Graduates with English Honours have many an avenue to choose. They can settle with teaching jobs or go for post graduation in English which will open up the doorway to research or teaching employment at higher levels.
- They possess an added advantage of carrying on communication in English in speech and writing. They can very well compete in job market for lucrative employment through UPSC, State PSC and other bodies conducting screening for Govt. and private sectors.
